

Hello!

BIZ VIZ – Your visualization lookbook!

June 2018 – 2nd Issue

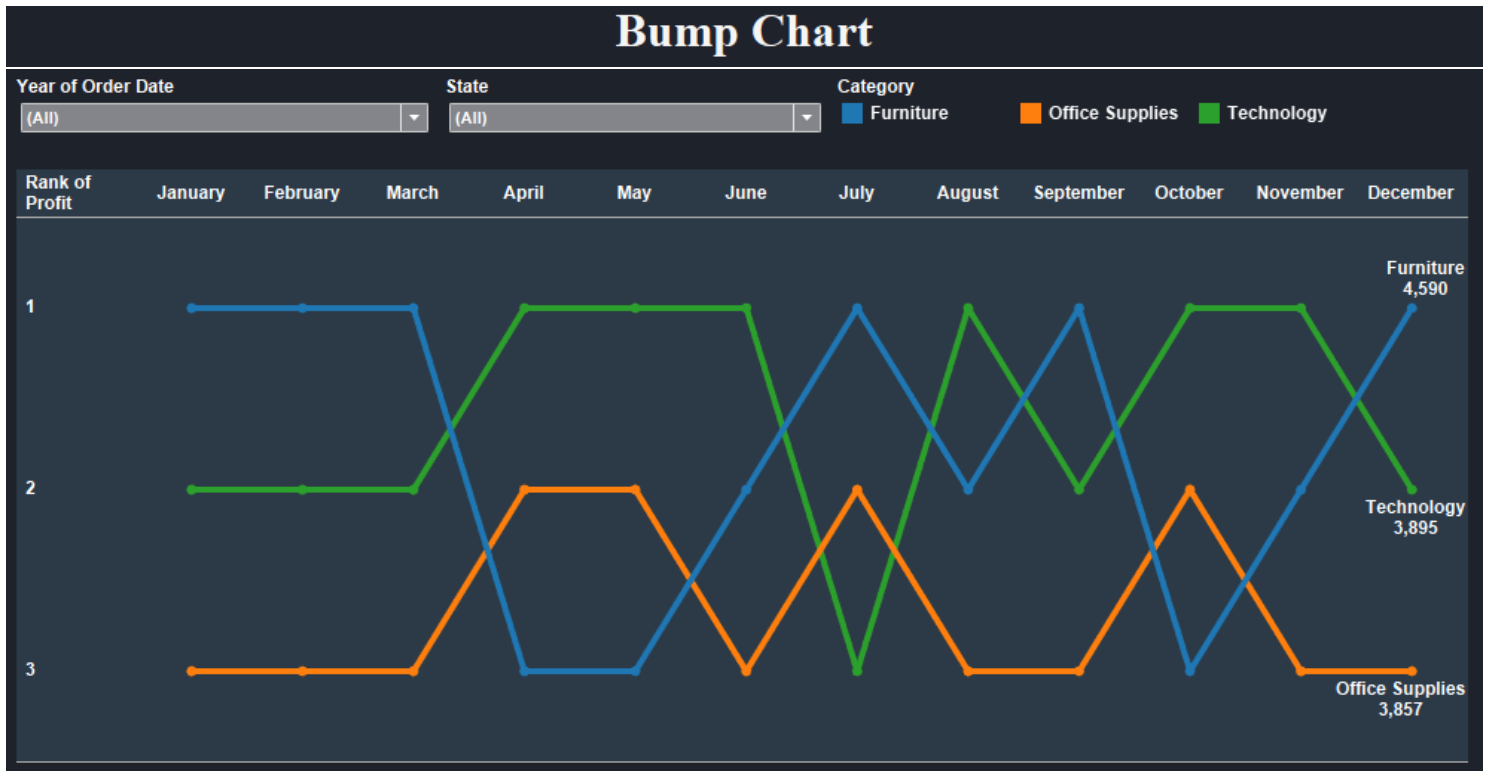

Tableau Bump Chart is used to compare one Dimension against another Dimension using one of the Measure value. Bump Charts will be very useful for exploring the changes in Rank over a time period or region so on.

Here, selecting a specific year and a particular state will change the view and will give the information about the profit trend with respect to individual category.

Bump Chart

Year of Order Date

2013

State

Delhi

Category

Furniture

Office Supplies

Technology

Rank of Profit

January

April

July

August

October

December

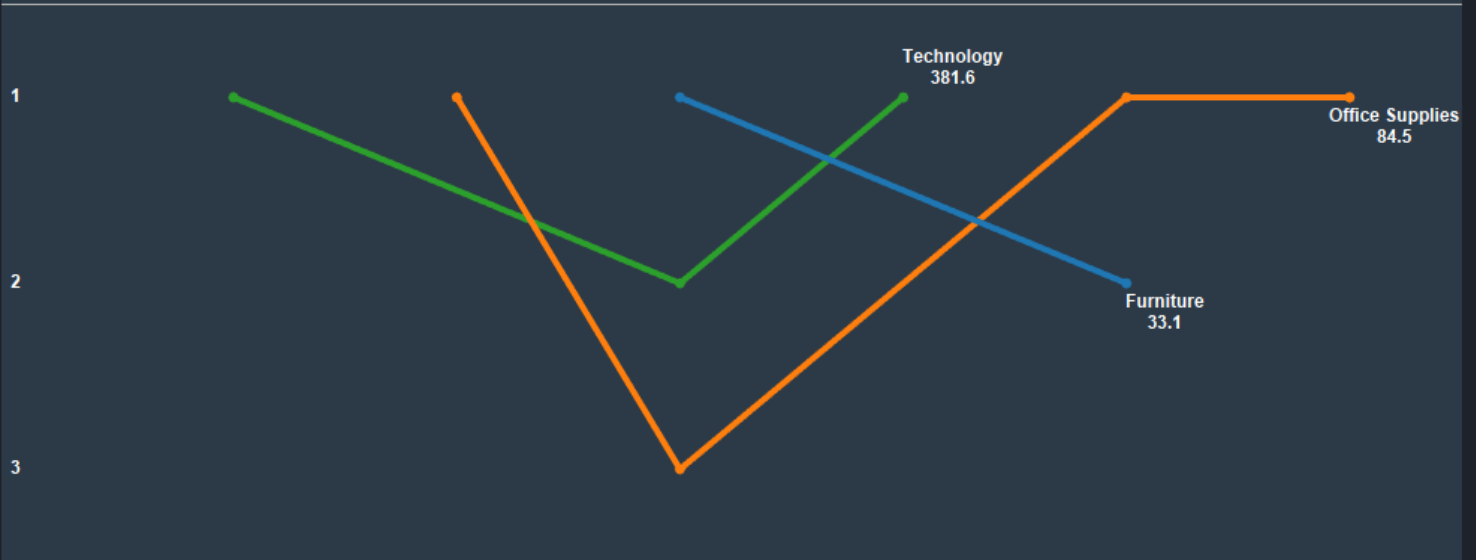

TABLEAU BUMP CHART

Tableau Bump Chart is utilized to look at two measurements against each other utilizing one of the Measure esteem. They are exceptionally helpful for investigating the adjustments in a rank of an incentive over a period measurement or place measurement or some other measurement pertinent to the examination.

Learn how to create Bump Chart in Tableau.

<https://www.tableau.com/learn/tutorials/on-demand/bump-charts>

<https://www.thedataschool.co.uk/gauthier-bonnot/create-bump-chart-tableau/>